Mrs. W. C. Terry, of No. 2 North Plum Street, had a row Saturday morning with Mrs. G. H. Westphal, a dressmaker, who subrents a room from het. Mrs. Terry said that she loven peace and quiet, and induged in a little paneagyric on her affection. The trouble, she alleged, lay in that Mrs. Westphal made too much noise for her comfort, and they had some words, but her mimory was not clearly distinct as to what those words were.

"Do you want me to jail them for that?" shreked His Highness. "The jail is the only hotel it keep, and it has the best fare of any hotel in town. But I can't put these people there just because you want to get rid of them."

There was a formidable array of witnesses, and things went against the complainant.

"Two families can't live in the same house—that's the first thing I said when my cyes first opened on this mundane sphere," said Solomon the Second, "Don't bring any more of those charges here, or I'll make you pay the costs, Stand aside," William Williams, alias "Spider," was caught begging on the street. He had a card, playing the deaf and dumb act. He was not so afflicted in court, however, But the negre complained of illness, which forced him to beg for his living, and he did look of a rather sallow hue. He will be examined by the city physician, and, if ill, will be released; if not, he will be made to work.

Edna Lewis, colored, added to her worldly goods by appropriating a pocketbook, two silver pocket pleces and $5.65 from A. A. Adami, of No. 112 West Broad Street. Ninety days was given her in which to repent of her kieptomaniacal proclivities.

Prisoner's Daughter Calls.

The Burton case is still pending before the Governor, and His Excellency is looking carefully into it.

Miss Helen Burton, daughter of the prisoner, called at the Executive Department yesperday and again sought the pardon of her father. She was courteously received, but the Governor gave no intimation of his intentions in the matter. Meanwhile he has written Judge Witt, Mayor McCarthy, Commonwealth's Attorney Folkes, and officials of the Epworth League here, to learn their views concerning the matter. The prospects of Burton's release before he serves out his term seem very slim.
